10th - 11th October 2026 Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi

FROM UNANI ROOTS TO GLOBAL REACH

Dear Professionals / Students!

The Unani Drugs Manufacturers Association (UDMA) is pleased to invite you to the 9th UDMA DAY Conference, CUME & Health Mela, being held on 10–11 October 2026 at Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi.

With the theme “From Unani Roots to Global Reach,” the event will bring together manufacturers and exporters of Unani products, physicians, researchers, academicians, students, traditional medical practitioners, policymakers, industry professionals and other stakeholders from across India.

The two-day programme will provide a platform for scientific exchange, professional learning, industry interaction and public engagement, featuring expert lectures, scientific presentations, Continuing Unani Medical Education and a Health Mela.

The event aims to foster collaboration, encourage scientific dialogue and strengthen the connection between Unani's rich heritage and contemporary research, innovation and healthcare practices.

The event will bring together diverse perspectives from the medical, scientific, academic, pharmaceutical, agricultural and business sectors, creating opportunities for knowledge sharing, professional networking and collaborative initiatives.

We look forward to welcoming you to Delhi for two days of knowledge, collaboration and a celebration of the rich heritage and promising future of Unani Medicine.

Unani Drugs Manufacturers Association (UDMA)

The Unani Drugs Manufacturers Association (UDMA), a society registered in New Delhi on 11 October 2017 under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, serves as a unified voice of the Unani industry in India. With over 100 members, including manufacturers of Sharbats and Health Supplements regulated under FSSAI, UDMA represents manufacturers from across the length and breadth of the country and is committed to promoting the interests and development of the Unani pharmaceutical industry.

OBJECTIVES OF UDMA

1. To set up and manage organizations, institutions, and research centers focused on the development of Unani medicine, allied herbal drugs covered under Ayush.
2. To provide updated information on the latest technologies and research achievements in the fields of science and technology, specifically related to Unani medicine, to both members and the general public.
3. To foster research and development initiatives in the cultivation of Unani herbs, ensuring their quality control and sustainable growth.
4. To raise public awareness about Unani medicine and allied herbal drugs through seminars, workshops, conferences, conventions, and health camps aimed at both the public and industry professionals.

5. To address challenges faced by members and the general public during the implementation of the Unani system, including health-related matters, manufacturing, cultivation, and scientific research, by engaging with the Ministry of Ayush and other relevant government bodies.
6. To represent the interests of its members and the public before central and state governments, as well as statutory bodies, ensuring their concerns are heard regarding the implementation and advancement of Unani medicine and allied herbal drug industries.
7. To establish affiliations with other organizations, research centers, societies, and boards, fostering a network that strengthens the Unani and herbal medicine community.
8. To promote a global outlook among members, emphasizing high standards and quality in the production and development of Unani medicine and related products.
9. To provide scholarships, stipends, and financial support to deserving B.U.M.S. and M.D. (Unani) students to encourage academic excellence and research.
10. To promote high-quality research, healthcare programmes, and the production of quality Unani products through camps, clinics, seminars, exhibitions, and Continuing Unani Medical Education (CUME) programmes, with a focus on spreading awareness of Unani Medicine and allied herbal drugs.
11. To create public awareness on various health and social issues related to Unani medicine through posters, banners, audio-visual media, documentaries, and other informative campaigns.
12. To engage with relevant authorities and stakeholders to address and resolve issues faced by members of the association related to the Unani medicine industry.
13. To support the public and government health and welfare initiatives through participation in relevant schemes and providing assistance and guidance wherever needed.
